

Vita

Gary McLendon

Health, Workforce & Technical Studies
Lamar State College-Orange
410 Front Street
Orange, Texas 77630
Office Phone: 409-882-3967
gary.mclendon@lsc.edu

Education

Bachelor of Arts and Applied Sciences, 1997 Lamar University, Beaumont, TX
Associates of Electronics, Lamar Institute of Technology, Beaumont, TX

Professional Experience

August 2013 - present, Lamar Institute of Technology, Beaumont, TX, Welding Instructor.

Instructed students in an introductory level course in the shielded metal arc welding process.

1978-June 2013, Exxon-Mobil, Beaumont, TX, 1st Class Welder/QA-QC Inspector.
(Retired)

Supervised welders.

Responsible for reading and interpreting x-rays of welds.

Accountable for PMI of materials.

Read and calculated take offs on prints.

Bought off on hydro testing of pipe to ensure pressure requirements were met.

Determined proper materials for each job assigned to shop.

Distributed welding rods and all materials to welders.

Teaching Experience

WLDG 1323	WLDG 1434	WLDG 2413
WLDG 1327	WLDG 1437	WLDG 2443
WLDG 1428	WLDG 2406

References

Greg Langston, Supervisor, Exxon-Mobil, Beaumont, TX. (409) 540-9680.

Larry Fontenot, Supervisor, Exxon-Mobil, Beaumont, TX. (409) 718-0951.

Earl Geis, Program Director of Process Technology, LSCO, Orange, TX (409) 882-3000