

Vita

Capt. James Chatlosh

Health, Workforce & Technical Studies
Lamar State College-Orange
410 Front Street
Orange, Texas 77660
E-mail address: James.Chatlosh@lsco.edu

Education

Seaman's Church Institute – Center for Maritime Education, Houston, TX
Houston Marine Training Services, Houston, Tx
Delgado Community College – Maritime/Industrial Training Center, New Orleans, LA
Two Rivers Marine Training and Consultants, Nederland, TX
Texas A&M University at Galveston – Center for Marine Training and Safety, Galveston, TX

Licensures and Certificates

Merchant Mariner Credential by The United State Coast Guard National Maritime Center

Certificate of Training:

- Train the Trainer
- Hazwoper
- Vessel Security Officer
- Tankerman Marine Firefighting Course
- Tankermen Techniques
- Advance Pilothouse Management
- U.S.C.G. Approved Radar Observer
- Management Skills for the New Supervisor
- H2S – Breathing Air Course
- Drug and Alcohol Awareness for Maritime Supervisor
- Streamlined Inspection Process (SIP)

Professional Experience

Captain, Takeman, Vessel Management

Blessey Marine Service, Harahan, LA

October 2003 to June 2017

Vessel navigation, knowledge of all check points and mile markers.

Maintain daily Maintenance logs, inventory of equipment and supplies.

Ensuring that the fiduciary expenditures of the boat are in line with allotment.

Responsible for safety and job performance and evaluation of all other crew members

Coast Guard's onboard Designated Examiner for the assessment of competence of candidates for towing vessel licenses.

Compliance with and observation of all Coastal Guard regulations, roles and CFR updates.

Management for tankermen, product and cargo while in the commissions of their duties.

Safe and efficient operations and performance of the crew, vessel and tow.

Captain

Coastal Towing, Houston, TX

April 2000 to August 2003

Vessel navigation of all intercoastal waterways and western rivers.

Knowledge of mile markers, check points and chemical docks.

Keeping daily maintenance logs, inventory of equipment.

Responsible for safety and performance of deckhands and tankermen aboard vessel.

Captain

Higman Marine Services, Orange, TX

May 1993 to March 2000

Responsible for the safe movement of 6000 tons of chemicals weekly for Amoco, Chevron, Citro, Shell and Philbro.

