

Date: August, 2023

Vita

Jerome Dimas

---

Industrial and Process Technology
Lamar State College-Orange
410 Front Street
Orange, Texas 77630
Office Phone: 409-882-3944
E-mail address: Jerome.dimas@lsco.edu

Education

B.A., Philosophy, 1972, Merrimack College, North Andover, MA
3 Years Grad School, Theology, Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

Professional Experience

1978 – 2008: Operator at DuPont Sabine River Works – Orange, TX [operated hydrogen plant, water treatment plant, powerhouse (generating steam and electricity), bio-oxidation ponds, cooling water pump house, barge, rail and truck loading/unloading facilities and hazardous waste incinerator]; assignments included: operations, training, manual-writing, accounting, safety/occupational health/environmental coordination. Retired after 30 years.

2008 – 2014: Renewable BioFuels – Pt. Neches, TX [process operator and supervisor for start-up and running of green energy biodiesel plant]. Start-up to 5 years.

2014 – 2015: East Texas Electrical Co-Op – Woodville, TX – [operator for start-up and running of green energy electrical generation power plant]. Start-up to 1 year.

Spring 2015 to present – Adjunct Instructor – Process Technology LSCO. 8 ½ years.

Teaching Experience

PTAC 1302 - Introduction to Process Technology

PTAC 1410 – Process Technology I - Equipment

EPCT 1305 – Environmental Regulations

PTAC 2420 – Process Technology II - Systems

Community Service

2005 – Present – Orange County Go-Texan Committee. Supporting Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and bringing college scholarships to Orange County students.

Involved in many ministries at St. Francis of Assisi church in Orange.