

Richard D. Lindsey

410 Front Street
Orange, TX 77630

Phone Number: (409) 882-3322
Email Address: rdlindsey@lsco.edu

Education:

Master of Library and Information Science, University of South Carolina, 2020

Concentration: Academic Libraries
Graduated with a 4.0 GPA

Master of Arts, Political Science, Sam Houston State University, 2008

Concentration: American Government
Graduated with a 4.0 GPA

Recipient of the Excellence in Writing Award, Sam Houston State University, 2009
Awarded the College of Humanities & Social Sciences scholarship, Sam Houston State University, 2008

Member of Pi Sigma Alpha honor society, Sam Houston State University

Bachelor of Arts, History and Political Science, Lamar University, 2004

Graduated with a 3.93 GPA

President of Pi Sigma Alpha honor society, Lamar University, Fall 2004

Member of Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Sigma Alpha, & Phi Alpha Theta honor societies, Lamar
University

Collegiate Teaching & Academic Library Employment

Experience:

Instructor of Political Science, 2018 – present

Adjunct Instructor of Political Science, 2010 – 2018

Lamar State College Orange

Courses Taught: Federal Government and Texas Government; American Government I and II

--Providing overview of federal and Texas government concepts to state college and dual credit students, via face-to-face, hybrid, and online instructional methods

--Assessing students' success at mastering concepts

--Collaborating with other faculty to create comprehensive curriculum and lesson design

--Service on several faculty committees and organizations, including the Curriculum and General Education Assessment Committees and Faculty Senate; currently serving as

Secretary of the General Education Assessment Committee

--Staying attuned to current pedagogical methods via participation in professional development

Library Associate, Acquisitions, 2016 – 2017; 2018

Lamar University Mary & John Gray Library

- Processing, checking in, and maintaining records of journals, periodicals, and continuations received by the Acquisitions department
- Various tasks, including receiving and distributing library mail, ordering and preparing “fun reads” (popular fiction) books, processing donated books not added to the library collection to be sold, and claiming damaged or non-received periodicals

Instructor of Political Science, 2014 – 2016

Piedmont Technical College

Courses Taught: American Government and State & Local Government; College Skills; Developmental & Critical Reading

- Providing overview of American and state & local government concepts to technical college and dual credit students, via in-person, distance learning, and online instructional methods
- Assessing students’ success at mastering concepts
- Collaborating with other faculty to create comprehensive curriculum and lesson designs
- Teaching college skills and facilitating developmental reading coursework for college preparatory and transitional studies students
- Staying attuned to current pedagogical methods via professional development
- Serving as an academic adviser for students

Library Associate, Circulation, 2013 – 2014

Lamar University Mary & John Gray Library

Assisting with various tasks in the circulation department, including clerical duties, opening/closing procedures, managing cash register/deposit procedures, supervising student workers, assisting patrons, and inventory

Graduate Teaching Assistant, 2008

Research Assistant, 2007

Sam Houston State University

- Assisting professors with research and other projects
- Proctoring and grading student examinations
- Conducting research regarding public, urban, and rural transportation systems for, assisting in the compilation of a community mailing list and survey materials for, and compiling data collected for a public transportation-related survey and research project

Publication:

Coauthored “The Effects of Rising Gas Prices in Huntsville, TX” with Dr. Sarmistha R. Majumdar (PA Times, v31(4), April 2008)

Professional Memberships & Community Involvement:

- Texas Community College Teachers Association
- Service as Election Judge, Orange County Precinct 9, 2020 -- present